

Luxury Lighting, Electrical, and Home Technology Design

Aterra designs, sells, and documents all chosen selections for luxury lighting

DISCOVER MORE: aterradesigns.com / info@aterradesigns.com

Aterra Designers meet with luxury home buyers to select their lighting, electrical, and home technology options. Custom showrooms for builders are available upon request.

All sales, design, and electrical documentation is saved within our proprietary system to streamline the design process, increase installation efficiency, and reduce field errors.

The Aterra Premium process results in 2-3 times typical lighting and electrical sales due to our design-first approach.

Latest lighting designs, Quick documentation

Remove the confusion of staying up-to-date with the latest lighting design products and electrical codes by allowing our expert lighting designers to take over.

Contractors, builders, and home buyers will receive all relevant information in their own online portal. Clear communication and timely information make Aterra Premium the best choice for a luxury home buying experience.